Description

Blue chafing dish container measuring 800 x 400 x H 340 mm. These stackable and nestable containers are specially designed for the dust-free and hygienic transport or storage of chafing dishes.
When filled with chafing dishes, the containers can be stacked securely, while empty containers can be nested to save space. They provide excellent protection for often expensive and fragile serving dishes, making them indispensable for the hospitality industry, professional caterers and larger hotels.
